

SHKP unveils the stylish King's Hill residences

King's Hill, a new residential project along MTR West Island Line developed by SHKP, incorporates premium materials and a stylish design to embody quality and taste.

Premium school net and convenient transportation

King's Hill situates in a privileged location in Island West with open views from a high terrain. The development is in close proximity to Mid-levels West. There are numerous traditional elite schools in neighbourhood such as The University of Hong Kong and King's College. King's Hill is located at 11 POA school net and central and western school net for primary school and secondary school that includes St Stephen's Girls' College, St Joseph's College and other renowned schools, offering the most ideal learning environment for the next generation. The development will provide a total of 166 apartment units mainly with 1 to 3 bedrooms.

A perfect blend of Eastern and Western cultures

The new development is close to Sai Ying Pun MTR Station opened in March this year. It merely takes about five minutes* for a ride on the West Island Line to reach Central. The urban planning and community amenities in Island West have been optimized after the West Island Line came into service. Various unique high-taste concept shops, such as fusion restaurants, café, bars, art galleries have opened in the district. It transforms Island West into an artistic and sophisticated community that has attracted a lot of foreign elites with different culture backgrounds. The appreciation potential created by the opening of West Island Line is significant, making King's Hill an ideal choice for smart investors and stylish residents.
