

Mount One: Creating an exemplar in the area

Specially designed and built by SHKP, the Mount One residential project which was launched in mid-April is now almost fully sold.

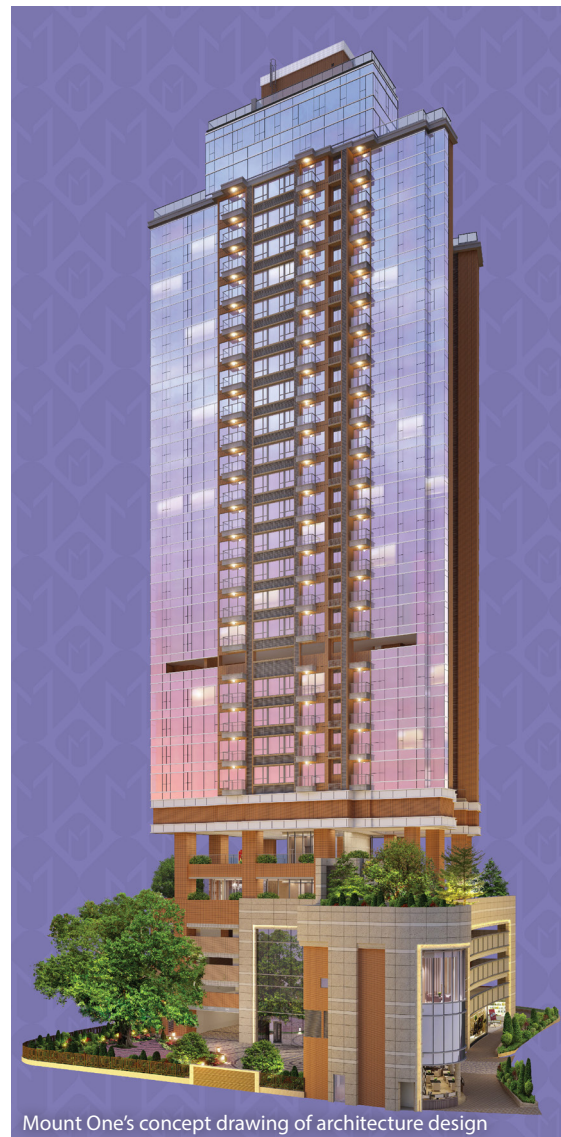

Lush greenery, open views

Designed to suit your every mood, Mount One not only boasts magnificent views but is also strategically located next to Fanling's low-density residential area. Besides being fitted with exterior glass walls that promises to elevate every built environment with an exquisite experience and offering two to four bedroom units, this residential property also features exclusive large units boasting plenty of wide living spaces and low-density occupancy with its three to four units per floor layout.

Unwind and relax at the Kea Club

This wonderful residential property features a clubhouse known as the Kea Club. Whether it's a leisure swim in the 50 feet long outdoor pool, enjoying a glass or two at the elegant promenade or indulging yourself in a wonderful moment at the garden lounge, the Kea Club is bound to provide you with the sheer pleasure of life. Mount One is managed by the Royal Elite Service Company Limited. Besides providing busy residents with services which include professional concierge services, premier household services and gourmet catering services, allowing home owners to enjoy a premium experience even when they are at home.

(Note: Mount One's residence services or other services mentioned above are arranged or provided by Royal Elite Service Company Limited or other third parties.
